Norco College - The First 25 Years

“Open House”

Norco IMC invites you to take a look back to May 1990 at Norco College’s welcome to the community “Open House.”

“We really want the community to be aware of the fact that the college is here and offering services,” said Dave Waxman, dean of Student Services.

So RCCD invited the public to its open house to view the future site of Norco College. The event was held at its then temporary office on Second Street. Attendees were treated to a performance by the RCC Jazz Ensemble including singing by Melanie Coward et al, hors d’oeuvres, and tours of the construction, which had begun a week prior with cement being poured for Phase I. The dean led the tour as spectators watched graders work the soil.

The mobile home office in Norco offered services to students such as class registration and counseling.
