

Moving through Math

The math course sequence lists courses from lowest to highest and shows the order of which the math courses must be completed.

Placement results determine your starting point in the course sequence and indicate how many classes you will need to complete in order to achieve your academic goal.

Be sure to speak to a counselor to determine the correct math requirement(s) for an associate degree or to transfer.