

APRIL 2012

In April 1991, Norco College held a dedication event for a sitting area for students, which included two park style benches. The area also would be home to a plaque recognizing the City of Norco for its special efforts and support for the new Norco College, known then as the Norco Campus of RCCD.

To celebrate this moment in Norco College's history, guests enjoyed a performance by the choir before joining the honored guests from the city of Norco for the unveiling of the plaque.

Mayor Richard MacGregor, Mayor Pro Tem Terry Wright, Council Members Bill Vaughan, Barbara Carmichael, and Larry Cusimano as well as City Manager George Lambert were proud to have the college located in town and be partners in its future success.
