Partnerships & Programs

Military Times ranked Norco College as one of the Best Colleges for Veterans for the fifth time in six years - one of four California community colleges to make the ranking. It was also designated a Military Friendly® School for 2021-2022.

Norco College is expanding the Veterans Resource Center as part of a $3 million-dollar allocation in the state budget. The new center will allow additional space to offer resources for student veterans.

Norco College is home to one of the largest middle college high schools in the nation, John F. Kennedy (JFK) Middle College High School, with nearly 600 students enrolled each year. Since opening in 2006, JFK Middle College High School has graduated nearly 2,800 middle college students, many with at least 30 units of college credit, and some with associate degrees.

The LAUNCH Apprenticeship Program at Norco College is both a federal and state registered program that gives students the opportunity to begin their career following an earn-and-learn model. Students learn technical skills in the classroom while working full-time in their field of study. Over 400 registered apprentices are enrolled at Norco College while earning a living wage.

Since 2017, Norco College has partnered with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to offer the Prison Education Program at California Rehabilitation Center, a medium security state prison in Norco. The program enrolls approximately 250 students each term and is designed to offer on-site, face-to-face courses that fulfill all California State University general education requirements. Graduates of the program earn associate degrees in Business Administration and Sociology.

In collaboration with high school partners, Norco College has expanded the Dual Enrollment program that helps address the low college-going rate in the area, college access, and equity among students. The program has been implemented at 11 local high schools and Charter schools saving families both time and money.

"Norco College and the California Community College system changed my life. The college atmosphere was fully accessible, welcoming, hope-giving, and dream-realizing for the millions of first generation, self-made, self-finding, students like myself."

— Maha Ibrahim
Alumni and Civil Rights attorney

"My experience at Norco College was a great one. I received endless support and opportunities from the STEM Scholars program that paved the way for me to intern with the Naval Surface Warfare Center Corona Division, TTM Technologies and became a research assistant at USC's Automatic Coordination of Teams Lab."
