

Norco College
Student Art Invitational IX
Spring 2020
Norco College Art Gallery

For the ninth year, Norco College Art Gallery is pleased to share artwork created by students in the Norco College Studio Art program. Every artwork in this collection has been selected by one of the Norco College Art Faculty, and represents specific course objectives. Holistically, the Studio Arts Program Level Outcomes are to:

- Demonstrate proficient technical and creative skills with a variety of art materials.
- Understand works of art and design and the artistic contributions of diverse peoples through critical discussion and written assignments.
- Demonstrate, through the analysis of aesthetic and cultural values, an understanding of the contribution of art and design to human experience.

Norco College art students embody the creativity, diversity and depth of human experience that is so important to our society, now more than ever. On behalf of the student artists and our art faculty, I invite you to enjoy the their visual expressions.

Quinton P. Bemiller, Ed.D., M.F.A.

THE BIG SPOON

FORBIDDEN LOVE?

From the Iron Man to the Burger King - What is Robert thinking?!?

"Please Leave me alone, I'm trying to eat!"

RDJ'S MYSTERY GIRL???
"It's just a burger, what is wrong with you people?!"

Is Kanye just two kids in disguise?
Kim: "I knew it!"

A bag of food? OR A BAG OF LIES?
