

What can I do with this major?

Art History

Occupational Outlook

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can help you find career information on duties, education and training, pay, and outlook

- Archivists, Curators and Museum Workers
- Art Directors
- Librarians
- Claims Adjusters, Appraisers, Examiners, and Investigators
- Appraisers and Assessors of Real Estate
- Craft and Fine Artist
- Post-Secondary Teachers

Professional Associations

These organizations are one of the best places you can go to build networks, set up informational interviews, connect with mentors, get internships, earn scholarships and find jobs in your career field.

- Association of Art Historians
- Association of Historians of American Art
- American Alliance of Museums
- Association of Art Museum Curators
- American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works
- College Art Association
- Association of Art Editors
- American Craft Council

Career Information

Websites to help you dig deeper into careers in Art

- Careers in Art History: You will find a breakdown of nearly every type of art and career you can imagine, from the normal to the more obscure.
- Visual Arts Career Guide: Creating a central location for Career and Technical Education resources for students and educational professionals.
- Resources in Art History for Graduate Students: This continuously updated online newsletter lists grants, fellowships, internships and study abroad opportunities for graduate students in art history and closely related areas such as humanities and visual art studies.
- World Wide Art Resources: We offer you the tools to excel your artistic career. We offer you the tools to excel your artistic career

Job Postings

Find Your Career!

- NC Connect
- Art Search

