IV. Approval of Minutes for Friday, November 8th

- Motioned by Alan, Seconded by Bryan.
- Max's name is spelled wrong, it's Montano.
- 15/0/0 unanimous.

V. Announcements/Comments from the Public

This time is reserved for members of the public to address the ASNC on issues not already appearing on the agenda. A limit of three (3) minutes per speaker shall be observed.

- Marisa Yeager introduces herself.

VI. Old Business:

None

VII. New Business:

Sen.11.14.01 Discuss the role of the Government Relations Office

Motion Author: Marisa Yeager

(Discussion Item)

Marisa Yeager, Director of Government Relations for RCCD will introduce herself and discuss partnership opportunities

- Motioned by Teresa, Seconded by Bryan.
- Director of Government Relations for the RCCD. She helps council members.
 - Our Assembly Member is Sabrina Cervantes.
- She is gathering evidence to show the Board of Trustees how much leadership we have on our campus.
- This Tuesday, the board will decide on pursuing a bond that will cover 2 percent of property taxes on students.
- The entire palm walk way is freedom of speech and you can speak about any topic you want.
- Edwin: So every school has a different representative. Is that not the case anymore? The purpose of that is just, so all students have a representative that understands the problems in their campus.
- Edwin: So how can we advocate for something? So you could get in contact with me or with a board member/representative, and present your proposal.
 - Local residents will pay roughly $50 per year per person because of this bond.
- You can find more information on the board minutes, or contact us by going to RCCD website.

The Chair reserves the right to modify the order of business as it deems appropriate.

VIII. ASNC Advisor Report

- Next week is the last senate meeting, and if you know anyone who wants funding you have to either make it for next week or wait till February.
- Bill SB291- encouraged ASNC to become familiar and advocate. We should start focusing on advocating state wide and this Bill is one of the ways we can start.
- Edwin discussed the student services fee and how they sent out the information about the increase of fee to the students.
- When students come in everyone in ASNC should be able to know how to guide a student through the process of submitting a fee waiver.
- Edwin explained the fee waiver process for ASNC.
- They have to submit it through email to Edwin and Angel. It is per term, which also goes for winter and summer.
- If a student drops their classes and doesn't need to pay for the student fees after, then they can get a refund.
- Angelica: Why does it say we scan? We don't have scanning but we will start after the fee increase. The cashier has discounted movie tickets, knotts berry farm. You can find these in RCCs page because our cashier doesn't do this process.
- Alan: The things they do not get how would we implement that? Edwin talks to them and knows who they are and he never sees him.
- Student workers will come up with policies for copying and scanning.
- Scholarships should be in the works since you need references.
- Work on applications for CSU and UCs.

IX. Executive/Committee Reports

- Business and Facilities Planning Committee – Ana, Samia
 - They talked about veterans parking and they will hold off on STEM and work with students on the locations.
 - They also discussed the budget allocation model and repairs on third street.
- Library Advisory Committee – Cesar, Michael
 - We went over a new program that will replace the library database called Premo. This is what Cal States and UCs use so we are trying to prepare students ahead of time.
 - The LRC got sponsored by Starbucks for finals week. So they will give us snacks and coffee.
 - Sarah: Is There any specialty drinks? I don't know but there will be better snacks.
- Curriculum Committee – Andrea
 - Curriculum Committee approved a new course.
- Norco Assessment Committee – MK
 - They discussed SLOS and went over the ISER.
 - UC's receive Ds'

The Chair reserves the right to modify the order of business as it deems appropriate.

- They discussed if all students will meet student outcomes and how some they can just sit there for a grade.
- Safety Committee - Tharek, Ryan
- They talked about a shooting drill and an earthquake drill.
- They discussed about having signs for sharp containers to either be dumped in the nurse's office or the police officers.
- Angelica suggested that you could write a statement to motivate them into throwing them away.
- Edwin and Active Minds are collaborating to bring dogs to the school.
- They will have classes on how to learn to make a turnakit. It is a strap you put on a wound.
- Marketing Committee – Angelica, Andrea, Alan, Ashley
- We talked about Norco's CDs and music, it's on spotify. The music department is accepting donations, they also had a party at silver lake. The bond money discussed a way to distribute the money.
- Alan: They have 2,000 streams on Spotify.
- We talked about Freedom of Speech for students and staff.
- They made flyers to promote the music.
- Also there is a showcase in the Little Theater this Saturday.
- They are looking for videographers.

Administration:

No report.

Finance:

Ana went over line items $19,775 left. We still have the Student Trustee's budget left. It seems like a lot of money and we should be fine next semester with the budget.

Activities:

Thank you for attending the speech, and we have the Angel Tree decorations are ready.

Edwin : I'll start the publicity once we set up. We don't know where we are going to put the gift but we will figure it out.

Relations:

Rugby is having a game tomorrow at 12.

Abraham: I looked at the CD and really doesn't believe many people will use them.

He thinks that the money can be spent on better things like making music videos.

They discussed the sweaters Relations are working on for ASNC.

Bryan: Can we change the stitching. Yes but the stitching that relations chose is nice.

They discussed the CDs and how they could show off the students talent in a cheaper way.

The Chair reserves the right to modify the order of business as it deems appropriate.

On Tuesday, Men of Color will have a professionalism workshop.

Organizations:

Next Tuesday will be our last ICC meeting

President:

Sarah met with Dr. Green yesterday, and I asked about the hydration station.

The hydration stations were supposed to be for this week but they will be coming next week.

They also asked about the parking stalls and how veterans parking is already settled.

Sarah wants to make a resolution for athletics to take to the board.

Sarah met with the Chef and I suggested more options. There will be vouchers for students and wraps are coming back.

If anyone is interested in running next year, talk to your executive board.

Samia: They thought the hydration stations came in but they are waiting for the installation.

Samia: Why can't we put them all in. They wanted to do them in phases.

Cesar: Can we put one by the Library or LRC.

Sarah: I will ask and see if we can.

December works well for everyone for the Christmas party.

X. For the Good of the Order/Announcements/Comments from the Public

This time is reserved for members of the public and ASNC officers to address the ASNC on issues not already appearing on the agenda. A limit of three (3) minutes per speaker shall be observed.

- Max: I didn't go to the grant committee.
- Tharek: Someone left the cart stranded by ATEC.
- Samia: It was me and I told Angel.
- Teresa: Did they change the date for the grants committee? Yes, they didn't give me the time till it was to late. So it is not an absence
- Edwin: Dr. Claude Steele will be here to talk about his book

XI. Adjournment: 10:40 am

The Chair reserves the right to modify the order of business as it deems appropriate.
