VII. ASNC Advisor Report

Edwin Romero: The results of the student trustee election are in. I will be sharing the results and a flyer later today. For the gowns we have a flyer that is out. We have some responsiveness. The gown promotion is popular. If we could we should expand that in the future. The ASNC election today and the deadline is tonight. I cannot say much at the moment but that is what I can say. If you know someone that is running please remind them by the end of the day. I haven't heard much from the budget but we will put it on the agenda next week. We will move forward next week and it will be on the senate agenda for approval.

VIII. Executive/Committee Reports

Administration

Anisha Solhotra: Edwin and I have a meeting on Monday to discuss the candidate meetings. Some people have emailed me about the vacancies for positions and what each position do. I will reach out to each person to give a brief description of what they do. Sean and I met again to get Umoja on board. I will be speaking to Women's Lean in Circle to promote. Please please please promote because we need these positions to be filled. I will be sending out the updated attendance.

Finance

Tharek Phounsavat: I updated the budget and sent it out early yesterday. Six requisitions that were approved. One was reimbursement for Sean. Two were for Mark for soccer balls. One was for requisitions for Aqualis Inc. Something that had to do with Aint I a Woman show. If you guys have any questions, please let me know.

Activities

Tami Ajayi: Hello! May is mental health matters month. They have a bunch of different workshops planned for May. Wellness Wednesdays will keep going on. Women's lean in Circle will continue their series of Five Love Languages. The gown promotion is going on right now. We have not sent out information about the drive-thru graduation because it is not set in stone. We will be getting more information this week.

Relations

The Chair reserves the right to modify the order of business as it deems appropriate.

Samia Irfan: We do have a couple more followers on Instagram.

Campus Organizations/ICC

Isaac Nuñez: Hi everybody! We have two meetings left which are on Tuesdays at 1pm. Last week we have Step up to Leadership. We have a good event and I think the turnout was good. Next Thursday at 7pm, they will be having a movie night. It is an older anime movie. Not too sure which one. May 29th, we have the ICC social event through discord. Come by and meet the other club members. We have a drive coming up on May 17th-May 27th. If you guys would like to donate for the food pantry, please do!

Executive

Angelica Calderon: I do have a meeting with Dr. Green at 2 o'clock. If you want to attend, please let me know.

Academic Senate

Samia Irfan: They approved ethnic studies. They approved social justice studies. They talked about their report. They are going to be mandating the vaccines if it goes well with the FDA report. I went over my report which was just going over the results of the survey. Laura Adams said she will help separating the information for each college. I know that discussing the survey people would have got confused for number five, Marie Hicks mentioned that number seven supports our assumptions.

ISPC

Angelica Calderon: We met yesterday and discussed the topic of the block calendar idea. What they wanted to do is dedicate the second and fourth Thursday to the bigger meetings. I told them we wanted more time for college hour. She said she wanted us to have more time and wanted to support us. There are always meetings going on for events and they are always clashing. She proposed a calendar, but I will present to you guys from my perspective. We get two days for college hour from 12:50 to 1:50. From that time we tend to have our events and they have their meetings. There are eight college hours a month. They wanted to do half for the students and half for the staff. This would not restrict anything. They just wanted to implicate that these certain days are for events or are for meetings.
