Motion Author: Edwin Romero

(Action Item)

The Associated Students of Norco College will discuss and vote to approve funding for food and prizes for various events that will prepare students for voting in the upcoming election.

Motion: Haroun, Second: Valerie

A representation fee is a two-dollar fee that every student pays, amounts to 4,000 dollars, and is sent to Sacramento.

Every college has one representative and they vote on any legislative 12,500 dollars get used to improve representation for the student body state-wide. An account is used to create pieces of training and is encouraged, 2,000 dollars is asked to be placed aside for food and voter legislation.(various six-seven events).

Measure CC is voting on whether there should be increased taxes specifically for renovations of buildings.

RCCD has a problem with water on campus and could use some space

Drawbacks: Property owners would have to pay taxes for the specific community allocated, the benefit is assisting the district and students within that district.

Without any incentives, there would be no discussion or participation hence the money.
The main goal is to educate students with incentives throughout the time period of the voter registration.

Around 30,000 people are voting for this legislation.

Norco college:3,000 voters

Funding for medical services is expiring and they will not be having it for four more years.

This will be on the ballot. (numerous issues that will affect many students)

45 people for each event, and a lot of professors are giving extra credit to prompt this event.

30 students are guaranteed in each event due to the guest speakers because of their class where they are given extra credit opportunities.

Approved by consensus

Senate.10.04.03 Approval up to $225 from Executive Contingencies (92199) to fund surgical scrubs for Norco College students.

Motion Author: Ruben Aguilar
(Action Item)

The Associated Students of Norco College will discuss and vote to approve funding for 8 sets of scrubs to support students participating in an internship at Wonder kind Pediatric Therapy .

Motion: Adel Second: Isaiah

6 internship opportunities for kinesiology students at Wonder Kind Pediatric Therapy.

Everything was provided for students except scrubs. Students must bring their own scrubs.

The internship will focus on younger kids.

Will be holding interviews for the internship on Tuesday (10/8).

6 scrubs needed. 8 scrubs will be bought, leaving 2 extra in case the number of students attending the internships increases.

Must refund the two extra scrubs if they are not used.

Approval day is Thursday (10/10).
