VII. ASNC Advisor Report

Dr. Romero: Attendance policy- able to appeal absence and give reasons. Will appeal in person before Senate meetings at the executive meeting.

Harvest went smoothly and efficiently.

Walkie-talkies are working and can be used for future events to communicate

Winter retreat- January 24-26th- meant for team bonding and work out improvements for the future of ASNC

Registration is open- keep Fridays open as well as Tuesdays and Thursdays. It is important to register by the end of the day today

December 6th- last ASNC meeting

End-of-year celebration for the ASNC team- planning is TBD

Scholarships- ask for a letter of recommendation before the semester ends

City of Norco event tonight from 6-8 pm at Pikes Peak Park- need help setting up canopies

VIII. Executive/Committee Reports

Muzammil: If felt an absence was wrong, email Muzammil

Zayed: Tuesday, November 5th is the election watch party- need volunteers

Dilraj: Doing a Chick-fil-A Fillet promotion for the app, going to have a QR code that takes them straight to the sign-up for the app

Cheryl: Lack of ASNC rep, ASNC started to show up, harvest festival looked similar to last year and spread out setup, open event for clubs.

Harvest feedback: More tables and canopies. Clubs should show up at 4:30. Candy distribution was good, give clubs instructions on how to distribute candy. Joust should be moved toward the grass with the obstacle course.

Yusuf: Met with President Green last week to discuss the packets the distributions were supposed to given last week, packets are for measure CC. Team for each packet 1-8 inside giving the location in which we will be walking with a script with papers that have information regarding the political parties which should be done by this weekend. Two people for each packet even and odd for each street.(Not mandatory but volunteer work off the clock). The locations are in Eastvale.

Other Report: Dr.Hartley is currently present, we need to use our money efficiently in order to help the community at Norco College.
