Dr. Heartily- athletic director

Men's team ranked 2nd in state of California and had a chance at winning the state championship.

Host a game on the 23rd of November

Host a game before thanksgiving and the following week we will hold another game

We don't have to travel in order to play those games the final games, we are trying to be proactive and the state championship will be in the state of sacramento we need hotels and vans

They pair them with the south and north with the friday game and win the game and play the game on sunday for the state championship food cost, transportation, and sheltering

5,000 men and women each so 10,000 asking to use that money when they win additional fee of 4,000-5,000 dean line item Dr. Hartley will be using to pay he wants to use ASNC contingencies Conference champions for the second year in a row.

They represent Norco college as they travel, representation is illustrated the two games will be streamed, we are part of the C32A that will be provided with links.
