

What can I do with this major?

Forensic Science

Occupational Outlook

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can help you find career information on duties, education and training, pay, and outlook.

Anthropologists and Archeologists

Forensic Science Technicians

Psychologists

Biological Technicians

Police and Detectives

Medical Scientists

Professional Associations

These organizations are one of the best places you can go to build networks, set up informational interviews, connect with mentors, get internships, earn scholarships and find jobs in your career field.

American Society of Forensic Odontology

American Board of Forensic Toxicology

American Society of Crime Lab Directors

American Society of Clinical Laboratory Science

International Association for Identification

International Association for Bloodstain Pattern Analysis

National Association of Medical Examiners

Forensic Sciences Foundation

American Academy of Forensic Sciences

Young Forensic Scientists Forum

American Board of Criminalistics

American Academy of Forensic Psychology

American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology

American Society of Questioned Document Examiners

Career Information

Websites to help you dig deeper into careers in Forensic Science

Coroner from ONET: Job description for a career as a coroner. Includes tasks, knowledge and salary.

Forensic Science Technician from ONET: Job description for a career as a forensic technician. Includes day-to-day expectations.

Police Identification and Records Officer from ONET: Job description for a career in police identification. Includes day-to-day expectations.

All-About-Forensic-Science.com: Includes history, degree options and more regarding a career in forensic science.

Forensic Magazine: News regarding the findings in the field of forensic investigation.

Crime-scene-investigator.net: Includes guidelines on how to collect evidence and procedures.

Job Postings

Find Your Career!

NC Connect

Forensic Magazine: See Job Board

