

What can I do with this major?

MUSIC/MUSIC BUSINESS

Occupational Outlook

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can help you find career information on duties, education and training, pay, and outlook

Musicians and Singers

Broadcast and Sound Engineering Technicians

Professional Associations

These organizations are one of the best places you can go to build networks, set up informational interviews, connect with mentors, get internships, earn scholarships and find jobs in your career field.

- National Association of Record Industry Professionals
- Recording Industry Association
- The Academy of Country Music
- Gospel Music Association
- Audio Engineering Society

Career Information

Websites to help you dig deeper into careers in Music/Music Business

Finding Jobs in Music: American federation of music.

Artistshouse Careers in Music: Helping musicians and music entrepreneurs create sustainable careers.

Berklee Careers in Music: Careers in music.

Huffpost Entertainment: News outlet specifically for music entertainment.

Billboard: Popular culture news outlet.

ASCAP Blog: Blog posts by ASCAP board members

Sony Music: Record label website.

Universal Music Group: Music labels official website.

Warner Music Group: Music labels official website.

Performing Arts Career Guide: Includes information such as daily activities, skill requirements, salary and training required.

Job Postings

Find Your Career!

NC Connect

Entertainment Careers Net

Hypebot's Music Industry Jobs

Time Warner Careers

NBC Universal Careers

BMI Jobs

ABC/Disney

CBS

